Background

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) was originally enacted in Title IV of the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, Public Law 103-322. In 1998, Congress appropriated funding to provide civil legal assistance to domestic violence victims through a set aside under the Grants to Combat Violence Against Women, Public Law 105-277. In the Violence Against Women Act of 2000, Public Law 106-386, Congress statutorily authorized the Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Program (Program). This program is intended to increase the availability of legal assistance necessary to provide effective aid to victims of domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault who are seeking relief in legal matters arising as a consequence of that abuse or violence.

The program awards grants to private nonprofit entities, Indian tribal governments, and publicly funded organizations not acting in a governmental capacity, such as law schools. These grants are for providing direct legal services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking in matters arising from the abuse or violence and for providing enhanced training for lawyers representing these victims. Grant recipients include law school legal clinics, legal aid or legal services programs, domestic violence victims' shelters, bar associations, and sexual assault programs. The goal of the Program is to develop innovative, collaborative projects that provide quality representation to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

Scope of the Program

The scope of the Program is defined by the program purposes and special interest categories. See Sections A and B of this application kit. Proposed projects do not need to address multiple special interest categories to receive support.

Although a limited number of legal services programs around the country are operated by advocacy organizations or specialize in domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking issues and already have working relationships with the victim advocacy community, most legal services providers have not historically worked collaboratively with advocacy organizations or victim services. Lawyers who represent victims without fully understanding the dynamics of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking may unwittingly jeopardize their clients' safety. As a result, legal services providers seeking funding through this grant program are required to enter into memoranda of understanding with nonprofit, nongovernmental domestic violence and/or sexual assault victim services programs. The role of the sexual assault or domestic violence program in this collaboration should be meaningful and ongoing throughout the grant period and include provisions for continuing education and training to all lawyers who will be handling cases. Such collaborative relationships will ensure that training and mentoring are provided on issues related to domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking and will strengthen communication between the legal and victim advocacy communities. An applicant may be exempt from this requirement if it is a sexual assault or domestic violence victim services program applying to provide on-site legal services or legal advocacy.¹

Training, mentoring, and collaborative relationships are core components of projects supported by this grant program. Lawyers and legal advocates providing services through the Program must be trained and mentored by respected domestic violence victim services programs and/or sexual assault programs within the community to be served. Additionally, nonlawyers must be fully supervised by attorneys in accordance with local bar rules. (See Coordination with Nonprofit, Nongovernmental Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Programs, page 11 for further information.)

A. Authorized Program Purposes

The Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Program provides an opportunity for communities to examine how the legal needs of victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking are met. The Program seeks to increase the availability and quality of legal assistance available for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking in matters arising as a consequence of the abuse or violence. By statute funds may be used:

- (1) to implement, expand, and establish cooperative efforts and projects between domestic violence and sexual assault victim services organizations and legal assistance providers to provide legal assistance for victims of domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault;
- (2) to implement, expand, and establish efforts and projects to provide legal assistance for victims of domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault by organizations with a demonstrated history of providing direct legal or advocacy services on behalf of these victims; and
- (3) to provide training, technical assistance, and data collection to improve the capacity of grantees and other entities to offer legal assistance to victims of domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault.²

Grant funds may not be used for certain activities. Prohibited activities include but are not limited to civil legal assistance for the following:

- Alleged batterers or, in the case of mutual arrest, the predominant aggressor.
- Law reform initiatives, including but not limited to litigation.

B. Special Interest Categories

In Fiscal Year (FY) 2002, the Violence Against Women Office (VAWO) is interested in funding projects that respond to the unmet legal needs of victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking within the special interest categories. Applicants are not required to address special interest categories; however, applications that do so will receive priority consideration. All applicants that are not sexual assault or domestic violence victim services programs are required to collaborate with one. (See Coordination with Nonprofit, Nongovernmental Sexual Assault and/or Domestic Violence Programs, page 11, for more information.) In addition, VAWO encourages all applicants to develop programs to reach diverse and traditionally underserved populations, including racial, cultural, or ethnic minorities;³ persons with disabilities; language minorities; or victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking in rural or inner-city areas. The following list does not imply any ordering of priorities among categories.

1. Establish or strengthen direct legal services programs to make a broad range of legal assistance readily available to domestic violence and stalking victims.

In many communities, direct legal services organizations provide free or low-cost legal services to victims. Programs vary, however, in their ability to provide assistance for the full range of legal needs of victims. Domestic violence and stalking victims should be able to turn to one resource to obtain an attorney's representation in or assistance with legal matters arising as a consequence of the abuse or violence, including family, immigration, administrative agency, or housing matters, protection or stay away order proceedings and other similar matters.

³ Of the amount made available under this subsection in each fiscal year, not less than 5 percent shall be used for grants for programs that assist victims of domestic violence, stalking and sexual assault on lands within the jurisdiction of an Indian tribe. Pub. L. No. 106-386, Sec. 1201, 114 Stat. 1464, 1503-1505, codified at 42 U.S.C. 3796gg-6.

2. Establish or strengthen projects focused solely or primarily on providing a broad range of legal assistance to victims of sexual assault.

Approximately 500,000 women are estimated to be victims of some form of rape or sexual assault each year.⁴ The National Violence Against Women Survey estimated that 14.8 percent of adult women in the United States had been raped sometime during their lives and that another 2.8 percent had been victims of an attempted rape.⁵ Friends and acquaintances of victims commit more than half of these crimes; intimate partners commit another quarter.⁶ Strangers are responsible for about one in five rapes or sexual assaults.⁷ Approximately 70 percent of rapes and sexual assaults are not reported to police.⁸ Often, many sexual assault victims cannot obtain appropriate, comprehensive legal services because of the lack of affordable, appropriately trained attorneys. Sexual assault victims should be able to turn to one resource to obtain an attorney's representation or assistance legal matters arising as a consequence of the abuse or violence, including family, immigration, administrative agency, or housing matters, protection or stay away order proceedings and other similar matters.

3. Establish or strengthen programs that assist victims of domestic violence, stalking and sexual assault on lands within the jurisdiction of an Indian tribe.⁹

The average annual violent crime rate among American Indians is approximately 2.5 times higher than the national rate.¹⁰ Rates of violence in every age group are higher among American Indians than that of all races.¹¹ The average annual rate of sexual assault among American Indians is 3.5 times higher than all races.¹² Seventeen percent (17%) of all Native women will be stalked during their lifetimes.¹³ Unfortunately, the modern barriers Indian women face when confronting domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking are considerable. American Indian and Alaska Natives living on reservations, rancherias and pueblos, or in villages, frequently do not have access to telephones, transportation, or any other form of emergency services. The combination of geographic isolation, lack of emergency services, and lack of knowledge of the justice system leaves many victims without any means of accessing assistance. Many victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking also lack access to legal assistance. VAWO is interested in programs designed to meet a broad range of victims' legal needs as well as projects with multidisciplinary components that serve victims on lands within the jurisdiction of an Indian tribe.

4. Establish or strengthen legal advocacy programs operated out of or under the direct auspices of domestic violence or sexual assault victim services organizations or shelters.

⁹ Eligible applicants under this program include: private, nonprofit entities, publicly funded organizations not acting in their governmental capacity, an individual tribal government, a consortium of tribal governments, or an organized community of Indians that is recognized as eligible for the special programs and services provided by the United States to Indians because of their status as Indians.

For the purposes of this grant program, Indian tribe is defined as any tribe, band, nation or other organized group or community, including an Alaska Native village or regional or village corporation (as defined in or established under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, 43 U.S.C 1601 et seq.), which is recognized as eligible for the special programs and services provided by the United States to Indians because of their status as Indians. (25 U.S.C. Section 450b(e)) Any applicant representing a consortium of tribal governments and/or organizations must submit a resolution from the constituent tribal governments and/or organizations supporting the application.

¹³ Tjaden, Patricia and Nancy Theonnes, Stalking in America: Findings From the National Violence Against Women Survey, Research in Brief, National Institute of Justice, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. (April 1998).

Victims who contact rape crisis centers or domestic violence shelters are often in need of immediate legal assistance or advice. Some crisis centers and shelters have established legal assistance programs by arranging with one or more lawyers to provide services to resident and/or nonresident victims. Others coordinate representation from among a cadre of lawyers who are willing to provide victims with pro bono or low-cost legal representation. An essential component of such programs is training that would ensure representation by qualified attorneys and/or legal advocates knowledgeable about the law and the dynamics of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

5. Establish or strengthen law school clinical programs that provide direct legal representation to victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, and/or stalking .

Clinical programs in law schools provide direct representation of victims to meet the full range of their legal needs. In addition, they train law students in substantive law and the dynamics of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. These law students are future lawyers, judges, and policy makers. Regardless of the field in which they ultimately work, they will bring to the justice system an enhanced sensitivity to the issues of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

Law school clinical programs that provide representation for victims seeking civil protection orders are eligible for consideration under this special interest category. VAWO also is interested in programs designed to meet a broader range of victims' legal needs as well as projects that develop multidisciplinary components. For example, a law school clinical course could be co-taught and co-supervised by a mental health professional and law professor, or a component of the program could provide assistance in emergency medical facilities.

6. Establish collaborative efforts among victim services programs and local agencies, local services (such as public housing agencies, hospitals, health clinics, public schools, campuses, and public libraries) or local businesses to provide on-site legal advocacy and/or legal assistance information in places where sexual assault, stalking, and domestic violence victims are likely to go.

To increase the reach of legal assistance programs serving victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking, VAWO promotes collaboration among community groups that may not have previously worked together. Through this approach, programs can provide assistance and information to victims in places that ensure privacy and safety. Some jurisdictions, for example, provide an attorney in a community health clinic.

7. Establish or strengthen programs to recruit, train, and coordinate attorneys who will provide pro bono legal assistance to sexual assault, stalking, and domestic violence victims.

Attorneys who provide pro bono representation to sexual assault, stalking, and domestic violence victims help to close some of the gaps in services for these victims. They handle cases in communities where there are no, or limited, legal services; they handle the overflow from existing legal services programs; and they sometimes provide the impetus for attorneys to turn their efforts full-time to representing these victims. VAWO recognizes that such representation never can be the only source of representation for victims--most lawyers are able to take on only a handful of pro bono cases each year. At the same time, there is tremendous value in ensuring that attorneys who accept such cases are well-trained on the dynamics and impact of sexual assault, stalking, and domestic violence.

Grants may support the development and implementation of pro bono programs by bar associations. This could include programs that recruit law firms to train attorneys in a firm to work as a domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking “department”; the recruitment and training of lawyers from diverse practice areas who must agree to take a minimum number of cases pro bono; or other means of coordinating the training and assignment of pro bono attorneys. Key components of such programs would be the recruitment, training, and ongoing mentoring of attorneys, the mandatory acceptance of a minimum number of pro bono cases following the completion of training, as well as the referral and placement of victims with attorneys who have completed the program. The use of grant funds to support pro bono efforts is limited to twenty-five (25) percent of the overall project budget.

C. Minimum Requirements

To be eligible for an award under the Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Program, applicants shall certify in writing that they are in compliance with the following statutory requirements:

- (1) any person providing legal assistance through a program funded under (this Program) has completed or will complete training in connection with domestic violence or sexual assault and related legal issues;
- (2) any training program conducted in satisfaction of the requirement of paragraph (1) has been or will be developed with input from and in collaboration with a state, local, or tribal domestic violence or sexual assault program or coalition, as well as appropriate state and local law enforcement officials;
- (3) any person or organization providing legal assistance through a program funded under (this Program) has informed and will continue to inform State, local, or tribal domestic violence or sexual assault programs and coalitions, as well as appropriate State and local law enforcement officials of their work; and

(4) the grantee's organizational policies do not require mediation or counseling involving offenders and victims physically together, in cases where sexual assault, domestic violence, or child sexual abuse is an issue.¹⁴

In addition, grantees must:

- ❑ Provide comprehensive legal services to sexual assault, stalking, and domestic violence victims.

Services should include referral and/or representation for emergency and nonemergency protection order hearings and other legal matters arising as a consequence of the abuse or violence, including family, immigration, administrative agency, or housing matters, protection or stay away order proceedings, and other similar matters.

- ❑ Coordinate with local nonprofit, nongovernmental sexual assault and/or domestic violence programs.

All applicants must enter into formal, respectful collaborations with nonprofit, nongovernmental sexual assault and/or domestic violence programs (e.g. rape crisis centers, local battered women's shelters, victim advocacy organizations or coalitions). While a limited number of legal services programs around the country are already operated by sexual assault and/or domestic violence programs, most legal services programs have not traditionally collaborated with domestic violence or sexual assault organizations. To promote and enhance these partnerships, the Legal Assistance for Victims Program requires that all applicants submit a memorandum of understanding, signed by the leadership of all agencies or organizations participating in the proposed project. (See Sample Memorandum of Understanding, Appendix H, for more details.) Similarly, the budget for the proposed project should reflect appropriate compensation for staff from the participating sexual assault and/or domestic violence programs and legal services programs. (See instructions for completing the Budget and Budget-Narrative, at Appendix E.)

- ❑ Implement guidelines outlined in The Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Recipients' Policy Manual.

Successful applicant will receive and are encouraged to implement, to the extent possible, protocols directed at enhancing victim safety. These include, at a minimum, conflict of interest, confidentiality, screening for domestic violence, and providing services to enhance the safety of victims.

¹⁴ Pub. L. No. 106-386, Sec. 1201, 114 Stat. 1464, 1503-1505, codified at 42 U.S.C. 3796gg-6.

D. Activities That May Compromise Victim Safety

Victim-centered, comprehensive legal services are critical to ensuring safety and stability for sexual assault, stalking, and domestic violence victims. Experience has shown that certain practices compromise victim safety and fail to hold perpetrators accountable for their criminal behavior. To enhance victim safety and hold perpetrators accountable, applicants are discouraged from proposing any of the activities listed below:

- ☐ Mediation, alternate dispute resolution, or joint counseling as a response to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Mediation implies that both parties are responsible for the perpetrator's violent behavior, a message that blames victims and fails to hold offenders accountable for their crimes. Mediation also presumes that both parties have equal power and can negotiate a mutually agreeable settlement. Where there is domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, however, one party has controlled the other through sexual, physical, emotional, and/or economic abuse. Even the most skilled mediator or therapist cannot shift the balance of power when one party has abused or assaulted the other, making mediation and joint counseling dangerous and ineffective in such cases.
- ☐ Policies or practices that discourage accepting cases for victims who do not have physical evidence. A thoughtful analysis is required when making a determination as to whether a person seeking services is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The absence of physical bruises, court records, police reports, and/or medical records does not mean that the applicant seeking services is not a victim. Offenders often threaten and isolate victims to deter them from seeking any outside assistance or cooperating with prosecutors. Consequently, records or other written documentation substantiating the abuse may not exist.
- ☐ Refusal to represent victims who are also respondents/defendants. Domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking victims are sometimes named as respondents or defendants in civil or criminal cases, as a result of improper dual arrests, mutual protection orders, or retaliatory law suits. Screening procedures should be based on an evaluation of the applicant's entire history rather than solely on the existence of pending criminal charges or civil protection orders.
- ☐ Representation on the condition that victims seek protection orders, counseling, or some other course of action with which they disagree. Victims are in the best position to know what actions could increase or jeopardize their safety. Legal service providers should offer options to clients and information about possible legal remedies and available social services. Imposing uniform remedies might compromise victim safety or recovery.
- ☐ Failure to conduct safety planning with clients. Attorney and nonattorney project personnel must routinely review safety planning options with clients. All project personnel must be aware of the risk of future harm that many victims seeking help experience. In addition to exercising legal options, it is critical to develop comprehensive safety plans with clients.

Eligibility for Awards

A. Eligible Grantees

Eligible grantees for this program by statute are private, nonprofit entities, Indian tribal governments, and publicly funded organizations not acting in their governmental capacity. To be eligible for a grant, applicants are required to enter into a collaborative working relationship with a nonprofit, nongovernmental domestic violence and/or sexual assault program from the community to be served. (See Application Guidelines - Coordination with Nonprofit, Nongovernmental Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Programs on page 11 for additional information.)

Only FY 1998 and FY 2000 grantees and new applicants are eligible to apply for FY 2002 funding. Recipients of FY 1999 funding or FY 2001 funding and their project partners are not eligible to apply regardless of whether they propose services for a different geographical area. However, recipients of FY 1999 funding who did not receive a FY 2001 continuation award are eligible to apply for FY 2002 funding. Additionally, an applicant or project partner may submit only one Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Program applications per fiscal year. All awards are subject to the availability of FY 2002 appropriations.

B. Types of Applicants

Victim services programs should meet all of the following criteria in order to be eligible for funding:

- ! Victim services programs must, as one of their primary purposes, provide services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, or stalking.

Experts view domestic violence as a pattern of coercive behavior that is used by one person to gain power and control over a current or former intimate partner. This pattern of behavior may include physical or sexual violence, emotional and psychological intimidation, threats, verbal abuse, stalking, isolation, and economic control. Applicants should be aware that when victims of domestic violence flee from abuse, perpetrators of domestic violence frequently claim to be victims in order to locate their former victims, punish them for leaving, or regain control over victims through legal proceedings. Organizations that claim to assist victims but actually assist perpetrators in regaining control over victims are not eligible for support. Moreover, in cases of dual arrest or cross allegations of abuse, projects must not provide victim services to the primary or predominant aggressor.

Victim services programs must reflect (e.g. through mission statements or training for all staff) an understanding that the violence perpetrated against victims is grounded in an abuse of power by offenders, reinforced through intimidation and coercion, sanctioned by traditional societal and cultural norms, and supported by the legal system's historically discriminatory response to domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking crimes.

Victim services programs must have this understanding because existing cultural and legal norms validate perpetrator conduct, compromise victim safety, discourage social support for victims, and perpetuate societal tolerance of the violence. In the context of these norms, perpetrator conduct impedes the liberty and autonomy of victims, creates fear of the perpetrator, causes physical and/or psychological injury, and limits the victim's access to services. The philosophy of victim services programs must reject the use of violence and intimidation to perpetuate these and other forms of inequality.

- ! Victim services programs must address a demonstrated need in their communities by providing services that promote the integrity and self sufficiency of victims, improve their access to resources, and create options for victims seeking safety from perpetrator violence.

A lack of services alone does not demonstrate the need for a particular program to be funded. Rather, applicants should determine whether there is a demonstrated need for the proposed services and whether the applicant would serve a significant number of victims who do not otherwise have access to resources such as safe housing, economic self sufficiency, advocacy and counseling, and culturally appropriate services. Services must be designed to restore victim autonomy and liberty, for example, by assisting victims when perpetrators have denied them access to financial resources such as family income or bank accounts.

- ! Victim services programs must not engage in activities that compromise victim safety.

Examples of activities that compromise victim safety include, but are not limited to: mediation, alternative dispute resolution, couples counseling, or any other intervention that implies that both parties are responsible for the perpetrator's violence; failing to respect victim autonomy and decision making; intervention or counseling programs for perpetrators that do not use the coercive power of the criminal justice system to hold them accountable for their behavior, such as anger or stress management programs; and providing perpetrators with confidential information about the whereabouts or activities of victims or their families.

- ! Legal services programs must consult and coordinate with nonprofit, nongovernmental victim services programs including sexual assault and domestic violence victim services programs.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have consulted and coordinated in a meaningful way with sexual assault and domestic violence victim services programs or coalitions.

Availability of Funds

A. Award Period

The award period for new and continuation grants will be 24 months. Budgets must reflect 24 months of project activity.

B. Award Amount

Applicants should carefully consider the resources needed to successfully implement the project proposed and present a realistic budget that accurately reflects project costs. Continuation budgets should be based on FY 2000 budget amounts. OJP may elect to make grants for greater or lesser amounts than requested and to negotiate the scope of work with applicants prior to award of a grant. Please note, all awards are subject to the availability of FY 2002 appropriations.

C. Future Funding

The Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Program is a discretionary grant program. There is no guarantee of continuation funding. Current grantees should provide a detailed explanation of the effectiveness of the existing program and how effectiveness is measured. All applicants should describe how project activities will be maintained and/or institutionalized in the absence of continued federal support. All applicants are required to include a statement describing willingness and ability to continue the proposed project after the Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Program funds are no longer available.

Program Guidelines

A. Exclusive Provision of Services to Sexual Assault, Stalking, and Domestic Violence Victims

All applicants for Legal Assistance for Victims grants are required to ensure that services supported by these funds will be provided to sexual assault, stalking, and domestic violence victims who cannot afford legal services as determined by the lead applicant or project partner after an intake interview with the prospective client.

VAWO recognizes that the client base of most direct legal services providers includes more than sexual assault, stalking, and domestic violence victims. Any organization that has this broader client base must implement a conflict of interest screening process that will ensure that no civil or criminal legal matter is handled for the abuser of a client.

B. Coordination with STOP Formula Grants Program and Other Federal Efforts

Applicants are required to submit a copy of their applications to the state agency that administers the STOP Formula Grants Program. In addition, applicants must indicate whether this project falls within the scope of the state's STOP and Byrne Formula Grant statewide strategies. Lists of STOP and Byrne state agencies can be found in Appendices I and J.

C. Violence Against Women Office Technical Assistance Program

Grant recipients must agree to work closely with VAWO staff and technical assistance providers. VAWO strongly encourages successful applicants to participate in training and technical assistance events sponsored by VAWO. As participation in technical assistance events will often involve out-of-state travel, applicants are required to include funds in the project budget to support travel costs associated with these activities (See Budget and Budget Narrative on page 22).

D. Coordination with Nonprofit, Nongovernmental Domestic Violence or Sexual Assault Programs

All applicants are required to enter into formal, respectful collaborations with nonprofit, nongovernmental organizations serving sexual assault, stalking, and/or domestic violence victims.

E. Information Collection

Grantees must collect and maintain data that measure the impact of services provided to victims, including the number of victims served and the number of victims seeking services who could not be served. Specifically, VAWO is seeking baseline data to illustrate the impact before and after implementation of any grant-supported services. Additionally, an analysis of how the project's work is integrated with other VAWO funded community projects is required where applicable. A plan as to how information collection will be accomplished must be included in the applicant's proposal.

F. Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Program Evaluation

The Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Program will be evaluated for impact and effectiveness, to document program outcomes, and to determine the impact of coordination among community-based services on victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. Evaluators may visit grantee sites to collect data for these evaluations. Grantees and project partners are required to cooperate in these evaluations and provide all requested information. In addition, successful applicants and their project partners are required to conduct local evaluations or assessments of their projects. See paragraph E.

Administrative Requirements

A. Assurances

This package includes a list of assurances that the applicant must comply with to receive federal funds under this program. It is the responsibility of the recipient of the federal funds to fully understand and comply with these requirements. Failure to comply may result in the withholding of funds, termination of the award, or other sanctions.

B. Purchase of American-Made Equipment and Products

To the greatest extent possible, all equipment and products purchased with grant funds should be American-made as required by the FY 1997 Appropriations Act.

C. Supplanting Prohibition

An applicant may not use federal funds to reduce and/or replace state and local funds, thereby reducing the total amount available for the stated project.

D. Human Subject Testing

The Department of Justice (DOJ) is a signatory to the federal policy on protection of human subjects of research, the "Common Rule." DOJ's incorporation of the Common Rule is set forth in 28 CFR pt. 46 - Protection of Human Subjects, which requires that research involving human subjects be submitted to an independent review board for approval and that informed consent procedures be followed. The policies set forth in 28 CFR Part 46 apply to all research involving human subjects conducted, supported, or otherwise subject to regulation by any federal department or agency that has adopted the Common Rule. Federal funds may not be expended for research involving human subjects unless the requirements of this policy have been satisfied, unless the research is covered by an exemption set forth in 28 CFR pt. 46.

The applicant must indicate whether the project or activity in its application includes research that may involve human subjects, as defined in 28 CFR pt. 46.

E. Certification Regarding Lobbying; Debarment, Suspension, and Other Responsibility Matters; and Drug-Free Workplace Requirements

The applicant must agree to the Certification Regarding Lobbying, Debarment, Suspension, and Other Responsibility Matters; and Drug-Free Workplace Requirements forms. The applicant must agree to comply with the following requirements:

1. Lobbying: The applicant and its subgrantees, contractors, and subcontractors will not use federal funds for lobbying and will disclose any lobbying activities.
2. Debarment: The applicant and its principals have not been debarred or suspended from federal benefits and/or no such proceedings have been initiated against them; have not been convicted of, indicted for, or criminally or civilly charged by a government entity for fraud, violation of antitrust statutes, embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, making false statements, or receiving stolen property; and have not had a public transaction terminated for cause or default.
3. Drug-Free Workplace: The applicant will provide or continue to provide a drug-free workplace. Signing this form commits the applicant to compliance with the certification requirements under 28 CFR pt. 69, New Restrictions on Lobbying, and 28 CFR pt. 67, Governmentwide Debarment and Suspension (Nonprocurement) and Governmentwide Requirements for Drug-Free Workplace (Grants). The certification will be treated as a material representation of the fact on which the U.S. Department of Justice will rely in making awards.

F. Single Point of Contact Review

Executive Order 12372 requires applicants from state and local units of government or other organizations providing services within a state to submit a copy of the application to the state single point of contact (SPOC), if one exists, and if this program has been selected for review by the state. Applicants must contact the state SPOC to determine if the program has been selected for state review. The date that the application was sent to the SPOC or the reason such submission is not required should be entered in block 16 on the Application for Federal Assistance, SF-424.

G. Civil Rights Compliance

All recipients of federal grant funds are required to comply with nondiscrimination requirements contained in federal laws. In the event that a court or administrative agency makes a finding of discrimination on grounds of race, color, religion, national origin, gender, disability, or age against a recipient of funds after a due process hearing, the recipient must agree to forward a copy of the finding to the Office for Civil Rights of the Office of Justice Programs. All applicants should read the Assurances required with the application funds to understand the applicable legal and administrative requirements.

Reporting Requirements

A. Financial Status Report

Financial status reports (SF 269-A) are due quarterly on the 45th day following the end of each calendar quarter. A report must be submitted every quarter the award is active even if there has been no financial activity during the reporting period. The final report is due 120 days after the end date of the award. Future awards and fund drawdowns will be withheld if the financial status reports are delinquent.

B. Audit Requirements

Non-federal entities that expend $300,000 or more in Federal funds (from all sources including pass-through subawards) in the organization's fiscal year shall have a single organization-wide audit conducted in accordance with the provisions of OMB Circular A-133. The audit report is due to the Federal Audit Clearinghouse not later than nine months after the end of the recipient's fiscal year.

C. Semiannual Progress Report

Recipients of funding are required to submit semiannual progress reports. The progress reports describe activities during the reporting period and the status or accomplishment of objectives as set forth in the approved application for funding. Progress reports must be submitted within 30 days after the end of the reporting periods, which are January 1 through June 30 and July 1 through December 31 for the life of the award. A final report, which provides a summary of progress toward achieving the goals and objectives of the award, significant results, and any products developed under the award, is due 120 days after the end date of the award. Report format will be provided to the recipient by the Office of Justice Programs. Future awards and fund drawdowns may be withheld if the progress reports are delinquent.

Suspension or Termination of Funding

The Office of Justice Programs may suspend funding in whole or in part, terminate funding, or impose another sanction on a recipient for the following reasons:

- ☐ Failure to comply substantially with the requirements or statutory objectives of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994, the Violence Against Women Act of 2000, program guidelines issued thereunder, or other provisions of federal law.
- ☐ Failure to make satisfactory progress toward the goals, objectives, or strategies set forth in this application.
- ☐ Failure to adhere to the requirements in the agreement, standard conditions, or special conditions.

- ☐ Implementing substantial plan changes to the extent that, if originally submitted, the application would not have been selected for funding.
- ☐ Filing a false certification in this application or other report or document.

Before imposing sanctions, the Office of Justice Programs will provide reasonable notice to the recipient of its intent to impose sanctions and will attempt informally to resolve the problem. Hearing and appeal procedures will follow those in Department of Justice regulations described in 28 CFR pt.18.

This section, submitted by current LAV Program grantees, should describe the effectiveness of the current project on your State, tribe or community, including descriptions of systems and attitudinal changes which have occurred as a result of Violence Against Women Office grants. Please provide a description that illustrates the "before and after" impact of the existing project, including, but not limited to, persons served and type of service provided, detailing the type of case (domestic violence, sexual assault, and/or stalking) and the type of legal assistance provided, and persons seeking services who could not be served. procedures, technology, or services supported with grant funds. Whenever appropriate, the review process should be designed to provide ongoing or periodic feedback on the effectiveness or utility of particular programs, educational offerings, or achievements, which could then be further refined as a result of the review process.

As a special condition to the award, grantees will be required to collect and maintain data that measures the effectiveness of the jurisdiction's current and prior efforts to combat domestic violence, sexual assault, and/or stalking. As a result of VAWA 2000, and in connection with prior programmatic reporting requirements, all grantees are now required by statute to report on the effectiveness of their programs. Further, VAWO must now report to Congress on the information about program effectiveness that is received from all grantees. Specifically, OJP is seeking data that includes baseline information to illustrate the impact before and after implementation of any strategies to address domestic violence. Data of particular interest to OJP includes, but is not limited to, persons served and type of service provided, detailing the type of case (domestic violence, sexual assault, and/or stalking) and the type of legal assistance provided, and persons seeking services who could not be served. Note: Applications that do not fall within the scope of these statewide strategies will not be disqualified from the review process.

5. Budget and Budget Narrative

Each application must include a detailed budget and budget narrative for the project. The budget must be complete, reasonable, and cost-effective in relation to the proposed project. The budget should provide the basis for the computation of all project-related costs. It should cover the cost of all components of the project and clearly identify costs attributable to the project evaluation. There must be a clear link between the proposed activities and the proposed budget items. In developing the budget, applicants should bear in mind that all partners should be fairly compensated for their participation in any project-related activities, including but not limited to compensation for time and travel expenses to attend or provide training and/or mentoring. The budget must include compensation for services rendered by all partners, including nonprofit, nongovernmental domestic violence victims programs and sexual assault programs (e.g., shelters and advocacy organizations). Match is not required for this grant program, but applicants are encouraged to maximize the impact of federal grant dollars by contributing to the costs of their projects. Supplemental contributions may be cash, in-kind services, or a combination of both. Applicants should carefully consider the resources needed to successfully implement the project proposed and present a realistic budget that accurately reflects project costs. Continuation budgets should not greatly exceed FY 2000 budgets.

with other Federal monies for the project; and/or providing services of some kind (e.g., technical assistance, research, evaluation) to the program/project described in this application.

All applicants must allocate funds for travel costs associated with technical assistance and capacity-building activities (e.g., training institutes, site consultations, audio- and video-conferences) sponsored by OJP-designated technical assistance providers. The amount that should be included in the “travel” category for these activities is $10,000 for local and individual tribal projects or $15,000 for statewide (statewide projects are those that propose to service 10 or more counties) and tribal consortium projects. Please provide an estimated breakdown for this amount (include the number of trips, number of travelers, airfare or mileage, lodging , and per diem).

Applicants also are urged to include funds in their budgets to attend financial management training seminars sponsored by OJP’s Office of the Comptroller. These seminars instruct participants in the financial administration of OJP formula and discretionary grants programs. A schedule listing the financial training seminars is available at www.ojp.usdoj.gov/oc/fmts.htm.

A Budget Detail Worksheet is included in this package. You will submit your budget and budget narrative online. However, when preparing these items, please use the budget worksheet as a guide, including all the required budget categories, as needed. The budget should clearly describe:

- a. The proposed amount and uses of grant funds over the grant period.
- b. How the amounts of the specific budget items were determined.

If an applicant's project is selected for funding, instructions on how to obtain award monies will be forwarded to the grant recipient.

6. Memorandum of Understanding

Each application must include, as an attachment, a current (i.e., signed and dated in calendar year 2002) MOU developed and signed by the chief executive officers and/or directors of all participating agencies including nonprofit, nongovernmental programs, legal services programs, Indian tribal governments and public entities not acting in their public function. See Sample MOU in Appendix H. The Memorandum of Understanding must:

- ☐ specify the extent of each party's participation in developing the application;
- ☐ clearly state the roles and responsibilities each organization or agency will assume to ensure the success of the proposed project;
- ☐ identify the representatives of the planning and development team who will be responsible for planning, developing, and implementing project activities and describe how they will work together and how they will work with project staff;
- ☐ demonstrate a commitment on the part of all partners to work together to achieve stated project goals;
- ☐ indicate approval of the proposed project budget by all signing parties; and
- ☐ describe the resources each partner will contribute to the project either through time, in-kind contribution, or with the use of grant funds (for example, office space, project staff, training).

Letters of support may not be submitted in lieu of the MOU. Victim service agencies may submit a Memorandum in Support of Request for Exemption in lieu of an MOU for VAWO's review and approval. See Sample Memorandum in Support of Request for Exemption at Appendix H.

After you have completed the SF-424 and attached the project narrative and budget worksheets in GMS and received confirmation and an application number, please fax the MOU to (202) 354-4119 and (202) 354-4147. Be sure to reference your application number and the title of the VAWO program to which you are applying on the faxed documents.

7. Assurances (Form 4000/3) and Certifications Regarding Lobbying; Debarment, Suspension, and Other Responsibility Matters; and Drug-Free Workplace Requirements (Form 4061/6)

8. Letter of Nonsupplanting

A letter to OJP's Assistant Attorney General, Deborah J. Daniels, certifying that supplanting of nonfederal funds will not take place should a grant award be made, must be faxed to (202) 354-4119 and (202) 354-4147. The applicant's proposal should include a project period of 24 months. If the applicant is a current grantee and is applying for supplemental funding, an additional 24 months will be added to the recipient's existing project period, if continuation funding is approved.

Review Process

VAWO will convene expert peer panels to review all applications, using the selection criteria set forth below. Applications that best meet the selection criteria also will be reviewed by VAWO staff. Instructions for Completion of the Application for Federal Assistance (SF 424)

The Application for Federal Assistance is a standard form used by most federal agencies. This form contains 18 different items which are to be completed before submission. All applications should include a completed and signed SF 424.

Item	Instructions
1	Type of Submission: If this proposal is not for construction or building purposes, check the “Non-Construction” box in the application section.
2	Date Submitted: Indicate the date you sent the application to OJP. The “Application Identifier” is the number assigned by your jurisdiction, if any, to track applications. If your jurisdiction does not assign an identifier number, leave this space blank.
3	Date Received by State: Leave blank. This item is completed by the State single point of contact, if applicable.
4	Date Received by Federal Agency: Leave blank. This item will be completed by OJP.
5	Applicant Information: The “Legal Name” is the unit of government of the parent organization. For example, the primary or parent organization of a law enforcement agency is the name of the city or township. Thus the city or township should be entered into the Legal Name box and the name of the law enforcement agency would be entered into the Organizational Unit box. Designate one person as the contact and include their telephone number. It is not unusual for the name of the contact person to differ from the authorized representative in Item 18 below.
6	Employer Identification Number: Each employer receives an employer identification number from the Internal Revenue Service. Generally, this number can be easily obtained from your agency’s accountant or comptroller.
7	Type of Applicant: Enter the appropriate letter in this space. If the applicant is representing a consortium of agencies, specify by checking Block N and entering “consortium”.
8	Type of Application: Check either “new” or “continuation”. Check “new”, if this will be your first award for the purpose described in the application, even if the applicant has received prior awards for other purposes. Check “continuation”, if the project will continue activities of a project, including minor modifications, or implement the next phase of a project that was begun under a prior award.
9	Name of Federal Agency: Type in the name of the awarding agency, “[insert agency name]”
10	Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance Number: This would be contained in the program announcement. The number for this program would be [insert number].
11	Descriptive Title of Applicant’s Project: Type in the: (1) title of the program as it appears in the solicitation or announcement; (2) name of the cognizant Federal agency, ex. U.S. Department of Education; and (3) applicant’s fiscal year, i.e. twelve month audit period, ex. 10/1/97 - 9/30/98.
12	Areas Affected by Project: Identify the geographic area(s) of the project. Indicate “Statewide” or “National”, if applicable.
13	Proposed Project Dates: Fill in the proposed begin and end dates of the project. These dates may be adjusted by the Office of Justice Programs when the award is made.
14	Congressional Districts: Fill in the Congressional Districts in which the project will be located as well as the Congressional District(s) the project will serve. Indicate “Statewide” or “National”, if applicable.
15	Estimated Funding: In line “a”, enter the Federal funds requested, not to exceed the dollar amount allocated in the program announcement. Indicate any other resources that will be available to the project and the source of those funds on lines “b-f,” as appropriate.
16	State Executive Order 12372: Some states require you to submit your application to a State “Single Point of Contact” (SPOC) to coordinate applications for Federal funds within the state. If your State requires a copy of your application, indicate the date submitted. If a copy is not required, indicate the reason. (Refer to the “Administrative Requirements” section of the program announcement, for more information.) The SPOC is not responsible for forwarding your application to the Federal awarding agency.

17	Delinquent Federal Debt: This question applies to the applicant organization. Categories of debt include delinquent audit allowances, loans, and taxes.
18	Authorized Representative: Type in the name of the person legally authorized to enter into agreements on behalf of your agency. The signature on the original application must be signed in blue ink and/or stamped as “original” to help distinguish the original from the photocopies.
